Exhumation of bodies

- 14. (1) Subject to the provisions of any other law relating to the disposal of bodies, no person may exhume, disturb, remove or re-inter any body in a grave or cause or permit any such body to be exhumed, disturbed, removed or re-interred—
- (a) without the prior written approval of the owner, legal occupier, traditional council or the relevant municipality in which such grave is situated and the Member of the Executive Council responsible for health matters in the Province; and
- (b) otherwise than in accordance with such conditions as may be imposed by the Member of the Executive Council responsible for health matters in the Province:

Provided that the above provisions do not apply where any such body exhumed, disturbed, removed or re-interred in consequence of, or in the course of or for the purposes of the interment of another body by or on behalf or with the permission of the person or authority having control of, and management of such cemetery.

(2) A person who wants to obtain the approval referred to in subsection (1) must lodge a written application as prescribed with the municipality in whose area of jurisdiction such cemetery is situated.

(3) The application referred to in subsection (2) must—

(a) specify the place where the body which is to be exhumed, disturbed, removed or is buried, and whether such body is proposed to be re-interred, and if so, also the place where such body is proposed to be re-interred;

(b) state the reasons for the proposed exhumation, disturbance, removal or re-interment;

(c) specify the methods proposed to be adopted and the precautions proposed to be taken, to prevent any danger to health or cause for offence arising;

(d) be accompanied by a medical certificate as to the date and cause of death, or a certified copy of such certificate;

(a) be accompanied by a written approval of—

(i) the municipality or the traditional council in whose area of jurisdiction the body in question is interred, and of the municipality or the traditional council in whose area of jurisdiction such body is proposed to be re-interred;

(ii) the person in charge of the cemetery in which such body is interred and, where such body is proposed to be re-interred, also the written approval of the person in charge of the cemetery in which such body is proposed to be re-interred; and

(iii) the surviving spouse or partner of the deceased, or—

(as) if there is no surviving spouse or partner, an adult child of the deceased;

(bb) if there is no adult child, a parent of the deceased;

(cc) if there is no parent, an adult brother or sister of the deceased;

(dd) if there is no brother or sister, the closest available adult relative of the deceased; and

(iv) a religious organization or a controlling body where the cemetery in which the body is interred or is proposed to be re-interred, is owned by or under the control or management of such a religious organization or is a cemetery in which such controlling body of any particular religious group has a specific interest.

(4) Where the medical certificate or written approval contemplated in subsection (3) is not or cannot be obtained or is not granted, the written application contemplated by that section must be accompanied by—

(a) full particulars of the efforts made to obtain such certificate or approval; and

(b) full reasons why the inability to obtain such certificate or approval must not preclude the issuing of the written approval in terms of subsection (1) (a).

(5) Any written approval in terms of subsection (1) (a) may be granted subject to such conditions as the relevant municipality may consider necessary.

PART 5

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Regulations and by-laws

are. (1) The Member of the Executive Council responsible for Local Government matters in the Province, after consultation with the municipalities, may make regulations regarding any matter that is necessary to be prescribed for the effective and efficient implementation of this Act.

(2) Any regulation made in terms of this section must be duly promulgated in the Provincial Gazette.

(3) A municipality may make by-laws with regard to any matter that is necessary for the administration of this Act within its area of jurisdiction.

6 No. 1397 PROVINCIAL GAZETTE EXTRAORDINARY, 27 DECEMBER 2006

(2) An inspector who removes anything from the crematorium being searched must—

(a) issue a receipt for anything removed from the crematorium to the owner or person in charge of the crematorium; and

(b) unless it is an item prohibited in terms of any applicable law, return it as soon as practicable, after achieving the purpose for which it was removed.

(3) Upon the request of an inspector acting in terms of a warrant issued in terms of subsection 4, the owner or person in charge of the crematorium or any other person present in the crematorium must—

(a) make available or accessible or deliver to the inspector, any document, record, object or material which pertains to an investigation contemplated in subsection (1) and which is in the possession or under the control of the owner or the person in charge;

(b) furnish such information as he or she has with regard to the matter under investigation; and

(c) render such reasonable assistance as the inspector may require to perform his or her functions in terms of this Act efficiently.

(4) A warrant contemplated in subsection (1) should be issued by a judge or a magistrate—

(a) in relation to premises on or from which there is reason to believe that a contravention of this Act has been or is being committed;

(b) if it appears from information obtained under oath or affirmation that there are reasonable grounds to believe that there is evidence available in or upon such premises of a contravention of this Act.

(5) The warrant issued in terms of subsection (4) may impose restrictions on the powers of the inspector.

(6) A warrant issued in terms of this section—

(a) remains in force until—

(i) it is executed;

(ii) it is cancelled by the person who issued it or, if such person is not available, by any person with like authority;

(iii) the expiry of one month from the day of its issue; or

(iv) the purpose for the issuing of the warrant has elapsed, whichever occurs first; and

(b) must be executed by day unless the person who issues the warrant authorizes the execution thereof by night.

(7) No person can be held personally liable for any loss or damage arising out of a bona fide action by a police officer or inspector under this section.

(8) An inspector exercising any power conferred upon him or her in terms of this Act must, on demand produce the certificate of appointment issued to him or her in terms of section 8.

(9) An inspector exercising any power conferred upon him or her in terms of this Act must, on demand produce the warrant.

Entry and search of crematorium without warrant

II. An inspector accompanied by a police officer may, without a warrant exercise any power referred to in section 10 if—

(a) the person in charge at the time so consents to such exercise; or

(b) there are reasonable grounds to believe that a warrant would be issued in terms of section 10 (4) and that the delay in obtaining the warrant would defeat the object of the search.

Closing of crematorium

12. (1) If an inspector, after inspection of a crematorium, certifies that such crematorium is defectively or inadequately constructed or equipped, or is in a state of disrepair or constitutes a nuisance, the relevant municipality may issue a closing order requiring that such crematorium or part thereof be closed and remain closed permanently or until any instruction given by the municipality to remedy such defect, inadequacy or disrepair or to abate such nuisance, has been complied with.

(2) If the owner or person in charge of a crematorium contravenes or fails to comply with any provision of this Act or if the relevant municipality is satisfied that such crematorium is not maintained or managed in a fit and proper manner, the municipality may issue a closing order requiring that such crematorium be closed and remain closed permanently or for such period as the municipality may determine.

(3) If a closing order in terms of subsection (1) or (2) has been issued in respect of a crematorium or part thereof, no person may perform, or permit or take in the performance of, a cremation in such crematorium or part thereof.

PART 4

EXHUMATIONS AND REMOVAL OF GRAVES

Prohibition of desecration, destruction or damage to graves

13. Subject to the provisions of any other law relating to the disposal of bodies, no person may desecrate, destroy or damage—

(a) a grave;

(b) a coffin or other receptacle which contains a body which has not been interred, or cause or permit such a grave, coffin or other receptacle to be desecrated, destroyed or damaged.

BUITENGEWONE POVINSIALE KOERANT, 27 DESEMBER 200G No. 1397 5

PART 3

ESTABLISHMENT AND OPERATION OF CREMATORIA

Establishment and maintenance of crematorium

5. (1) A municipality may, in the prescribed manner, establish and maintain a crematorium in its area of jurisdiction:

Provided that a crematorium may not be established—

(a) on privately owned land without the prior written consent of the owner or legal occupier of such land;

(b) in the area of jurisdiction of a traditional council without the prior written consent of the traditional council concerned which consent may not be unreasonably withheld.

(2) A municipality may, subject to such conditions as may be considered necessary, in writing grant a person authority to establish and maintain a crematorium and to regulate and control the use thereof including the authority to determine fees for the use of such crematorium.

Conditions for establishment of crematorium

6. (1) No crematorium may be established unless the site, plans and specifications thereof have been approved by the municipality in whose area of jurisdiction the crematorium will be established.

(2) No person may operate a crematorium unless the relevant municipality has issued a certificate of registration in respect of such crematorium as prescribed.

(3) The certificate referred to in subsection (2) must be issued only if the municipality is satisfied that a crematorium has been established in accordance with this Act and that it is properly equipped for the purpose for which it is intended.

(4) A municipality may issue a certificate of registration only to a person who has obtained the authority contemplated in section 5(2).

Site of crematorium

7. A crematorium may not be established within—

(a) two hundred meters of the boundary of private land without the written consent of the owner of such land or legal occupier;

(b) fifty meters of any public road, street, thoroughfare or public place.

Appointment and powers of inspector

8. (1) A municipality must, for the purposes of this Act, appoint one or more persons as Inspectors on such conditions as may be considered necessary.

(2) A person appointed as an inspector in terms of subsection (1) must be issued with a certificate of appointment. Routine inspection of crematorium

9. (1) Before issuing a certificate referred to in section 6(2), a municipality may require that the premises to be utilized as crematorium, the equipment and appliances, be inspected by an inspector.

(2) The inspector may enter a crematorium in respect of which a certificate has been issued in terms of section 6, at any reasonable time and—

(a) inspect such crematorium in order to ascertain whether it is maintained and managed in a proper, decent and orderly manner and whether the conditions imposed are being observed and complied with;

(b) question any person on the premises whom he or she believes may have information relevant to the inspection;

(c) require the person in charge of the crematorium at the time to produce, for inspection or for the purpose of obtaining copies or extracts thereof, any document that such person is required to maintain in terms of any law; and

(d) remove or take samples of any substance relevant to the inspection.

(3) The inspector may issue a compliance notice to a person in charge of the premises if a provision of this Act has not been complied with.

(4) An inspector who removes any sample as contemplated in subsection (2)(d) must—

(a) issue a receipt for the sample of any substance so removed or taken to the person in charge of the crematorium; and

(b) subject to any applicable law, return it as soon as practicable after achieving the purpose for which it was removed.

Entry and search of crematorium with warrant

10. (1) An inspector accompanied by a police officer may, on the authority of a warrant issued in terms of subsection (4) enter any crematorium specified in the warrant, and—

(a) inspect, photograph, copy, test and examine any document, record, object or material, or cause it to be inspected, photographed, copied, tested or examined;

(b) seize any document, record, object or material if he or she has reason to suspect that it might be used as evidence in a criminal trial;

(c) examine any activity, operation or process carried out in the crematorium.
