2. ADMISSION TO LIBRARY BUILDINGS.

1. Subject to the provisions of subsection 2, and of section 15, any person admitted to a library may use the facilities of that library during official library hours: Provided that if a person wishes to borrow library material, that person must first become a member of the library and pay the prescribed fee for membership.
2. A librarian may-
 - a. In his/her discretion determine the maximum number of persons that may be allowed in any part of the library at any given time and may exercise the necessary access control for that purpose;
 - b. For any reasonable cause, instruct a member or other person to leave the library.
 - c. Restrict or cancel membership of person who repeatedly do not return the books on time, without valid excuse or who does not respond to written reminders and phone calls (section (5 and 6)).
 - d. Refuse a person who gave incorrect information (address, phone numbers and other contact details, etc.) to take any material from the library.
 - e. A person must also immediately inform the library if any of his/her contact details have changed (paragraph (4), section (3)). Failure to do this will result in memberships being suspended.

3. MEMBERSHIP

 - a. Subject to the provisions of paragraph (b.i) subsection (3), the Council may grant to any person residing or employed within the area of jurisdiction of the Council or who is a taxpayer of the Council, membership of the library, subject to the provisions determined by the Councils and provided such person undertakes to subject himself to the provisions of the by-laws and the rules.
 - b. The Council may, subject to the conditions it may determine, grant membership of the library to a pre-school or school going child, should its parents or guardian consent, in writing thereto and undertake to stand surely for the observance by such child of the provisions of the by-laws and the rules for conducting the business of the library, adopted by the Council
 - i. All new applications for membership shall provide a copy of their consumer's account in order to prove that there are no debts.

- c. Application for membership shall be made on a form prescribed by the Council.
 - d. The Council shall issue a certificate of membership to a member authorising him/her to borrow from the library such quantity of library material as may be determined by the Council from time-to-time.
 - e. A certificate of membership shall be valid from date of issue until expiry date indicated on certificate. The membership of a person shall lapse after such period, unless it is renewed.
2. The Council may grant membership of the library to a person residing outside its area of jurisdiction on conditions determined by the Council from time-to-time.
3. A member desirous of terminating his membership of the library shall return his certificate of membership to the librarian without delay, failing which he may be held responsible in terms of section 9 for all library material borrowed against such certificate of membership.
4. When a member changes his/her address, he/she shall notify the librarian, in writing, within 7 days of such change of address.
 - a. When a member's certificate of membership gets lost, he shall forthwith notify the librarian, in writing, and the librarian may, on payment of the prescribed charges, issue a duplicate of such certificate.
 - f. Should a lost certificate of membership be found, the duplicate certificate of membership issued in place thereof, shall forthwith be returned to the librarian: Provided that any charges paid for such duplicate shall not be refunded to the member.
 - g. If a member gives notice in terms of paragraph (a), such member shall, notwithstanding the provisions of section 9.1, not be liable in terms of the said section in respect of any library material borrowed against the lost certificate of membership after the date of such notice.
6. A person residing for a period of less than three months in the area of jurisdiction of the Council may register a visitor if-
 - He applies for such registration on the form prescribed by the Council: Provided that the required proof of identification and particulars as determined by the Council, are submitted;
 - Comply with paragraph 3.1.b.i
 - The Council approves such application.
7. Any person may, on behalf of any organization or similar body, if duly authorised thereto by such organization or body, apply on the form prescribed by the Council for registration of such organization or body as a member of the library.

4. LOAN OF LIBRARY MATERIAL

1. Library material shall be deemed to be on loan from the library to the member against whose certificate of membership it was lent.
2. No person shall be in possession of any library material not lent against a certificate of membership.
3. Library material bearing the mark of the library or the Mpumalanga Provincial Administration, and on which there is no official indication that it has been withdrawn, written off or sold, shall be the property of the Council or the Mpumalanga Provincial Administration.
4. a. A member borrowing library material from the library shall ascertain whether such material is damaged and, if damaged, he/she shall draw the attention of the librarian to the fact.
b. The librarian shall not make damaged library material available for borrowing purposes: Provided that where such damaged material is nevertheless made available for borrowing purposes, particulars of such damage shall be affixed thereto.

5. RETURN OF LIBRARY MATERIAL

A member of the library shall borrow library material bought by the Council for a period not exceeding two weeks,

- a. The Council may extend the borrowing period of any library material not in demand by any other member after consideration of an application to that effect by the member who borrowed the library material, for not more than two more borrowing periods;
- b. A member shall be responsible for the return of library material borrowed by him/her, and should such member find it impossible to personally return such library material, he may return it in any other way;
- c. A member who has borrowed library material shall not keep it for more than three days after receipt of a written notice from the librarian that such library material is to be returned.

6. OVERDUE LIBRARY MATERIAL

1. Should a member not return library material borrowed against his/her certificate of membership within the period stated in Section 5.a. or any period determined by the Council in terms of the proviso to that section, as the case may be, such member shall be liable for payment to the Council of the prescribed fine for every week or portion thereof during which such member fails to return such library material.

2. The Council may exempt any person from the payment of such fine if the librarian is satisfied that failure to return library material is due to circumstances beyond the borrower's control.
3. In order to obtain overdue library material, a Council may determine a fine free period for a time in which such library material may be returned.

7. RESERVATION OF LIBRARY MATERIAL

1. No library material will be held for longer than 1 week after date of phoning member to collect reserved material.
